1. TAKE YOUR PRIDE OF PLACE FOR THE 07-08 SEASON

Dear Rams Fan

PRICE FREEZE – NO INCREASE IN SEASON TICKET PRICES!

As I write this message to you, none of us can say in which league Derby County will be playing next season, though we all know where we want to be!

Whatever the outcome, I'm pleased to announce a price freeze on Season Ticket prices in 2007-08. Like you, the Board of Directors are fans and our decision to keep prices as they are recognises your ongoing commitment to the Rams' cause. The fans will always be the lifeblood of this club and we really do appreciate your support.

All those of you who committed early last year will enjoy the same price this time around regardless of whether we are in the Premiership or Championship. The level of increase after the discounted period is also identical to 2006.

One area where I need your support and understanding this year however is that we are offering new Season Ticket holders the same deal as renewing Season Ticket holders. We don't intend to penalise fans who for one reason or another didn't commit to a Season Ticket in 2006-07, though they don't of course enjoy the benefit of being able to renew their seat. We make no apology for trying to encourage more Rams fans to invest in a Season Ticket: we need to keep attendances high at Pride Park Stadium to create the atmosphere that you and the players enjoy, and this applies whether or not Derby County are playing Premiership football in 2007-08.

This year we are also introducing a range of value added benefits for our Season Ticket Holders starting with offers from our main sponsor The Derbyshire Building Society and one of our car partners here at Pride Park, T C Harrison.

Like this season, I reckon a Derby County Season Ticket next time around will represent excellent value for money. Thank you again for your incredible support – and don't forget the deadline for best Season Ticket prices is close of business on Friday 13th April 2007.

Kind regards,

Peter

Adult membership is available to all supporters aged 17 and over.

Young Rams membership is for young supporters up to the age of 16.

DCFC PRIORITY SCHEME FOR HOME AND AWAY MATCHES

The Club will operate a ticket priority system to ensure that tickets are distributed to supporters as fairly as possible. Priority, however does not guarantee a ticket.

Home league matches

Tickets go on sale approximately one month before the date in which the fixture is to be played.

This is the normal priority order: Platinum Members, Gold Members, Silver Members, General Sale.

Home cup matches

This is the normal priority order: All Season Ticket holders to purchase their own seat, Gold Members, Silver Members, General Sale.

For most cup matches Season Ticket holders will be able to purchase an additional seat when purchasing their own seat.

We reserve the right to change this if demand is likely to exceed supply.

Away matches

When the Club receives a limited supply of away tickets or demand is expected to exceed supply, we reserve the right to allocate tickets to those supporters who have attended a certain number of away matches in the season. In these instances, supporters will need to apply for tickets by written application. The number of qualifying matches, dependent on how far into the season the date of the match is, will be announced should we need to use this additional criteria.

This is the normal priority order: Rams On Tour Members, Platinum Members, Season Ticket Holders, Gold Members, Silver Members, General Sale.

For the Club to be able to register your away matches, tickets must be purchased through Derby County Football Club. Tickets purchased from away clubs cannot be included.

YOUNG RAMS

IN 1970 DERBY COUNTY CREATED SOMETHING THAT WAS ABSOLUTELY NEW TO FOOTBALL IN THIS COUNTRY – A CLUB FOR JUNIOR FANS.

Last season we proved to young people in Derby, Derbyshire and beyond that being the first also means they get the very best in terms of great deals and fantastic exclusive events.

Thanks to some exciting new ideas, membership surged last time around and in 2007-08 we want to recruit even more members. Prices remain unchanged at £10 for Junior Season Ticket holders (Platinum membership) and £15 for non-Season Ticket holders (Gold membership). Membership benefits are listed here and we know you will agree that junior membership makes sense.

Our list of events during the season is growing all the time, from Ramtastic activity days and half-time shoot-outs to our popular Play on the Pitch festival and pre-match Play & Stay Club. In 2007-08 we guarantee any Platinum or Gold member signing up to our away game Plus Bus will pay, subject to availability, no more than £10 for travel and match ticket combined – that's an amazing deal!

To ensure we can more effectively let Junior Members know about offers and events, in 2007-08 we will be offering a £5.00 shopDCFC Direct voucher as part of the membership package to parents/guardians who provide a valid contact email address. If parents/guardians don't have internet access at home, a friend or relative's address is fine.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Season Tickets will be posted in the final week of July 2007.

If you have not received your pack by 31st July 2007, please call the ticket office on 0870 444 1884 (option 1, then 1).
